VOL. LV OAKLAND, CALIFORNIA, MONDAY EVENING, JANUARY 13, 1902 NO. 10

CONTRA COSTA COMPANY FILES ITS STATEMENT.

The Company Paid Sixty-Six Thousand Dollars for Its Taxes and One Hundred Thousand as the Cost of Operation.

The Contra Costa Water Company filed its annual sworn statement with the City Council this afternoon, as required by law.

The total receipts for the past year for the Oakland system, including the territory outside the incorporated limits of Alameda and Berkeley amounted to $440,431.54, which includes both water and land rents.

The receipts for the Berkeley system were $62,684.30; Alameda, $63,865.62, making the total for the entire system, $566,979.76.

During the year the cost of new construction in the Oakland division was $128,595.20; in the Berkeley division, $118,687.51; in Alameda division, $8,199.46, making the total cost of new construction $255,482.17. The cost of maintenance of the Oakland division was $122,906.42; of the Berkeley division, $22,550.84; of the Alameda division, $19, 659, making the total cost of operation for the entire system, $166,176.26. Interest paid during the year amounted to $256,001.97.

Dividends paid during the year amounted to $123,545.52. Paid taxes on Oakland division to the amount of $54, 296.12; on the Berkeley division, $5,080, 17; on the Alameda division, $7,019.91; making the total payments for taxes $66,396.20.

The costs of the suit brought against the City of Oakland foot up the huge total of $97,820.90.

Merchandise, materials, etc., on hand, January 1, 1901, amounted to $117,896.27; cash on hand, $20,532.41.
Merchandise on hand December 31, 1901, $81,982.58; cash on hand, $13,750.78.

The net earnings over and above taxes, interest and operating expenses, foot up $144,711.23, but this is less the amounts due from the city and county, which aggregate about $50,000. If this be added, the total net earnings will foot up something like $225,000.

During the first half of 1901 the rates were somewhat lower than in the second half, and the number of water consumers somewhat less, the increase of new consumers in the Oakland division for the year being 578.

MRS. M. A. GRAVES SUES HEALTH OFFICER FOR HEAVY DAMAGES.

Mrs. M. A. Graves, landlady of the Gregory House at Centerville, has sued Dr. H. W. Emerson, Dr. G. E. Chalmers, Health Officer of that district, and Supervisor C. F. Horner for $5,400 damages, alleged to be due on account of a quarantine placed upon the house last December.

The complaint alleges that Dr. Emerson was called to treat one of the lodgers and circulated the report that his patient was suffering from small-pox; that thereafter Supervisor Horner had Health Officer Chalmers quarantine and fumigate the place.

The quarantine remained on for eight days in regard to the fumigation the complaint recites:

"Dr. Chalmers proceeded to fumigate the place in a most careless and negligent manner, throwing a disagreeable and injurious substance over the carpets, floor and furniture and household goods in said hotel, grossly damaging same and making it not only disagreeable to the plaintiff, her guests and family, but also dangerous to their health."

RAILROAD MEN HOLD FIRST SESSION IN SAN FRANCISCO.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 12.—The first biennial convention of the chief division of the United Brotherhood of Railway Employees assembled in this city this morning and after the appointment of committees on credentials and officers, adjourned until afternoon. When the convention was called to order at 10 o'clock by President Geo. E. Estes, not more than fifty of the delegates responded to the roll call. Telegrams were received from many others along the various lines of railroad to the effect that they were en route and might be expected tonight or tomorrow morning. The delegates were formally welcomed to the city by Mayor Schmitz in a brief address and the convention then went into executive session.

At noon the following list of officials was announced:

First Vice-President, H. C. Smith of Portland.
Second Vice-President, J. E. Murray of San Francisco; Junior Past President, W. H. French of this city. The marshal and sentinel were also delegates from this city.

Upon reconvening at 1:30 P. M., the committees on credentials, order of business and special committee reported to the convention. Tonight the delegates have been invited to make a tour of Chinatown.

NARDINO.

SAN BERNARDINO, Cal., Jan. 12.—The Western Canadian Editors' Press Association arrived in this city this morning.

Two coaches containing seventy-three men and women were taken to Redlands, where the party was taken through the city. At 12 o'clock the party returned and the Board of Trade entertained them with a banquet at Hotel Stewart.

Judge Oster of the Superior Court delivered the speech of welcome. President J. J. Young of Ashcroft responded.
Flowers and oranges were presented to each member of the party.

The association left for Riverside this afternoon, from whence they go to Los Angeles. All members express surprise at the sublime climate in Southern California.

COMPLAINT IS FILED CHARGING EDWARD FLANIGAN WITH MURDER.

This morning George Ely swore to a complaint charging Edward F. Flanigan, who killed Richard Gorman in Austin O'Brien's store last Monday night, with murder. Ely was the arresting officer.

Flanigan will be arraigned before the Police Court tomorrow, when the preliminary examination will be set. As soon as the examination is completed, Former Mayor Chapman will make application to have Flanigan admitted to bail. Mr. Chapman has been retained to conduct the defense, and expresses the utmost confidence of an acquittal.

Former Judge Frick has been retained to assist in the prosecution, presumably by O'Brien, the employer of Gorman.

LYNCHERS ARE MAKING HARD FIGHT.

WITNESS IS ORDERED FROM THE STAND FOR UNGENTLE-MANLY CONDUCT.

ALTURAS, Cal., Jan. 12.—Proceedings in the case of the People vs. James Brown this morning were quite exciting at times. Today commenced the fourth day's cross-examination of Witness John Hutton at the hands of Messrs. Baker, Harris and Spencer, for the defense.

During the morning session, Hutton was twice ordered from the witness stand by Judge Harrington on account of "ungentlemanly and unprofessional conduct" of Baker, as Judge Harrington put it, and shortly before the noon recess, after a somewhat exciting debate, Judge Harrington finally ordered Baker to cease the cross-examination for refusing to obey the order of the Court as to his methods of framing questions.

Mr. Spencer took up the examination and his style of questioning was so subdued and quiet that the change was very refreshing to those in the court, after the fiery demeanor of his colleague, Baker.

The defense asked that two witnesses, J. O. Booth and P. H. Harth of Grants Pass, Or., be placed on the stand to testify to the character of Brown.
They testified to his good reputation during his residence in Grants Pass from 1893 to '96. Both gentlemen bore certificates as to their own character from the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Oregon, but on objection by General Post for the prosecution Judge Harrington ruled they not be admitted, saying: "The reputation of the Chief Justice of Oregon might be much worse than that of the witnesses, and his word could have no weight as to the reputations of witnesses, as their reputation is not involved. Personal appearance stamped them as gentlemen."

Hutton was then recalled and Baker asked him if "Daniel Miller had not been teaching him his lesson." The objection being sustained, Baker tried another tack. Post again objecting to Baker breaking of court's instructions, Judge Harrington said: "Objection sustained." Mr. Baker is not the man who will obey the ruling of the court if he can avoid it. Baker took an exception to the remarks of the court.

Much time was spent going over the old ground, many objections being made by the prosecution and sustained. Judge Harrington admonished Baker not to "manufacture words" and the remark called forth an objection from Judge Harris for the defense. Judge Harrington interrupted the argument of Judge Harris, which called forth a remark that the judge was old enough to know better than to interrupt, for which he was ordered out of the court.

When the case was resumed Harris was again admitted. Baker asked the witness if he had ever said he would help in the lynching.

"Alas, I am entitled to show every word he (Hutton) utters is false? That every time he opens his mouth he makes a contradiction, and that he is being paid for it?"

Hutton said that he had testified that he had said that he "guessed" he would be paid in the lynching. Baker again said Hutton had been working for the prosecution for months, being paid for it.

"You say that again," said the court.
"And I will order the witness from the stand."

Hutton denied that he had ever tried to induce any one to take a hand.

GRAND ARMY REPORT.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—Mr. Gras-venor of Ohio assailed the report of the Committee of the Grand Army of last summer which made certain Congressmen, himself among them, responsible for the failure to pass the preference pension bill. He said the report was unjust, unfair and untruthful.

WATKINSON'S SUIT IS DISMISSED.

The formal order, dismissing the suit brought by J. H. T. Watkinson against P. E. Bowles to recover oil stock alleged to have been secured by fraud, was today filed with the County Clerk.

AN AGED PREACHER DEAD.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Jan. 12.—The Rev. John Healy Haywood, aged 85, one of the best known preachers in the Unitarian Church in the country died today.

The Collamari-Ropetta Concert Company is composed of vocal artists. Tomorrow night at the First Unitarian Church will be the only chance afforded Oakland people of hearing them.
It will be a social as well as a musical event.

DUKE PAYS DAMAGES TO MISS KNIGHT.

AMERICAN GIRL GETS A LARGE SUM FROM ENGLISH
DUKE.

LONDON, Jan. 12.—The breach of promise suit brought by Miss Pottia Knight, the American actress, against the Duke of Manchester, has after all been settled out of court, the Duke paying Miss Knight 10,000 pounds ($50, 000) and defraying the costs of the legal proceedings.

An agreement was reached Saturday and the final papers will be signed Wednesday next, when the money will be paid.

The lawyers in the case say nothing in the nature of a scandal would have developed had the case come to trial, but unpleasant notoriety would have attended the reading of love letters, etc.

SAID HE SHOT A FILIPINO.

OLD CHARGES ARE REVIVED AGAINST COL. METCALFE OF KANSAS.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—Before the Senate Committee on Pensions today the charge against Colonel Wilder S.
Metcalfe of killing a prisoner in service in the Philippines was revived.

Colonel Metcalfe is the nominee for the office of Pension Agent at Topeka, Kans., and the charge is made in connection with the effort to defeat his confirmation. Colonel Metcalfe was a major in the Twentieth Kansas Volunteers when the battle of Calocan was fought and the charge is that during the battle he shot with his revolver a Filipino prisoner who was unarmed and at the time on his knees pleading for mercy.

Affidavits from soldiers in Twentieth Kansas have been filed with the committee and Captain Edward Boltwood, late captain of Company K of this regiment, appeared before the committee in person. The committee heard Captain Boltwood at length and at the conclusion of the hearing Committeeman Callinger referred the nomination to a sub-committee for further investigation.

ITALIAN SINGERS AT UNITARIAN CHURCH.

The music loving people of this city owe it to themselves and the reputation of Oakland as a music loving community to throw the First Unitarian Church tomorrow evening to listen to the singing of the Collamari-Ropetta Company of vocal solo-artists which will then sing here for the first and last time. The company has received the plaudits of the most critical and discerning people in the city, and the residents of this city may, therefore, rest assured that they will enjoy a most pleasant evening. This opportunity should not be lost by lovers of music. All the selections will be from grand opera.

WAS BADLY BURNED.

BAKERSFIELD, Jan. 12.—C. C.
White, an employee of the Kern County Land Company, was badly burned about the face, scalp and neck yesterday by the explosion of gas which had collected in an oil burner beneath a steam radiator. The fire had been turned out while Mr. White was employed in cleaning out the boiler vessel and the heat of the oil box in which distillate is used caused a gas to form. When Mr. White attempted to relight the explosion occurred. His eyes narrowly escaped permanent injury.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT WILL NOT COME TO OAKLAND THIS YEAR.

From the tenor of a letter received from President Roosevelt's Secretary, George B. Cortelyou, by Mayor Barstow this morning, the President is not coming to this coast this year.

Up till the time of the receipt of the letter this morning it was believed in this city to be a certainty that President Roosevelt was going to visit California during the coming summer, but it appears that such belief was not well founded.

Mayor Barstow addressed a letter to the President some time ago which read as follows:

"To His Excellency, President Roosevelt, Washington, D. C.—Honored Sir: Learning of your contemplated visit to the Pacific Coast during the coming season, I, as Mayor of the city of Oakland, desire, on behalf of our citizens, to most cordially extend to you the hospitalities of our city.

"Trusting that Oakland, California, may be placed upon your itinerary and her citizens honored by your presence, I have the honor to remain, sincerely yours,
ANSON BARSTOW, Mayor City of Oakland."

The following answer was received by the Mayor this morning, and its contents will cause much disappointment throughout the whole Pacific Coast:

"White House, Washington, January 5, 1902.
"My Dear Sir: Your favor of the 30th ultimo has been received, and the President cordially appreciates the invitation which you extend to him on behalf of the citizens of Oakland. If later on it should be found feasible to give serious consideration to a trip of the kind you mention, I shall be very glad to bear your wishes in mind. Very truly yours, "GEORGE B. CORTELYOU, Secretary to the President."

MR. BELL MAKES A PLEA FOR JUSTICE TO THE OLD SOLDIERS.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—In the House Mr. Bell of Colorado denounced the practices of the "pension sharks." He said that in some cases soldiers who were thoroughly examined at the time of their discharge and found to be perfectly sound, yielded to the im-portunities and applied for pensions within a month of their discharge. He made a strong plea for justice to the soldiers, not only of the Rebellion, but of the Spanish War, contending that to secure justice for deserving veterans, pensions to the unworthy should be opposed.

As against the soldier of the Civil War who had not applied for a pension in recent years, he thought the present Commissioner was too strict, but in the matter of ferreting out fraud he thought Commissioner Evans had been unexcelled by any of his predecessors. The estimates for the payment of pensions decreased from $144, 000,000 to $138,500,000. He was asked by Mr. Richardson of Tennessee why the amount for pensions decreased five and a half millions while the number of pensioners was said to be larger.

Mr. Barney explained that this was accounted for by the fact that the arrangements were decreasing and the number of large pensions (those from $50 to $75 a month) was also decreas-ing. In reply to another question he stated that the Commissioner of Pensions believed that the high tide of pension payment had been reached and the amount required would probably remain stationary for some years.

At the conclusion of the District of Columbia business, the House took up the pension appropriation bill. Mr.
Barney of Wisconsin, in charge of the bill, explained that it carried $139,846, 700, as against $145,245,230 appropriated for the current year.

SETTLE THE CONTEST.

NDW YORK, Jan. 12.—An order signed by Surrogate Fitzgerald indicated that there may be a settlement made with the heirs of the late William Marsh Rice, the aged capitalist of Texas, for whose alleged murder Albert T. Patrick, an attorney, is awaiting trial here. The order permitted Nina Belle Rice, grand niece of the deceased, to withdraw her opposition to the probate of the will of 1896, known as the Baker will, on receipt of $5,000. The reason for the supposed settlement was said to be found in the belief that the so-called Patrick will, which made the alleged murder a necessary legacy, would fail and that the will of 1896 creating the Rice Institute in Texas would stand.

BATTLESHIP ILLINOIS.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—The big battleship Illinois has just come out of the floating dry dock at the New Orleans Naval Station, having successfully demonstrated the possibilities of this structure. The department has been obliged to change its plans in respect to the vessel's movements. It will be necessary to omit the call at Pensacola, which had been promised to the Florida people, and instead the ship after touching at Havana for coal will proceed directly north to Newport News.

It is expected that the Illinois will be one of the American warships present at the Coronation ceremonies.

TWO PEOPLE KILLED.

CHICAGO, Jan. 12.—A message to General Manager Hitt of the Rock Island Road states that a passenger train ran into a construction train at O'Keen, Okla., killing two and injuring eight. A misplaced switch is believed to have caused the wreck. The dead:
—H. K. BARR, Wichita, Kas.
—E. A. COLFAX, Galva, Kansas.

Tomorrow evening in the First Unitarian Church, the incomparable Collamarini-Ropetta Concert Company will give an entertainment. This will be the gem musical performance of the season. Seats are in great demand.

LIFTED PIN FROM PROF. DE LAGUNA.

ONE THOUSAND DOLLAR GEM IS STOLEN BY A SNEAK THIEF.

The loss of a thousand dollar diamond pin was what it cost Professor A. De Laguna of 532 Twenty-fourth street to pay his daughter a visit in San Francisco yesterday.

He took the California street steam dummy at Central avenue amid a considerable crowd.

He was jostled a good deal in the crush, and when he got out of the press he was minus his pin.

The professor reported his loss to Chief Hodgkins, who gave him a letter to Chief Wittman of San Francisco. There is little hope of recovery, however, as the thief appears to have been the work of sleazy operators.

The diamond weighs nearly five carats and is valued at over $1,000.

The jewel is well known in Oakland, as Professor De Laguna has worn it constantly for several years.

CARNEGIE LIBRARY.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—It is stated by one of the incorporators and trustees of the Carnegie Institute that no reason is perceived at present for any Congressional or Governmental action in connection with that educational scheme. As it stands, the institute is like any other private corporation.
Therefore it is held there can be no question as to the propriety of its holding any class of securities, whether Steel bonds or United States Government bonds, as the basis of its endowment.

This statement is believed to indicate Mr. Carnegie's purpose to place his bequest in the shape of United States Steel securities as originally intended.

WAR IN PHILIPPINES.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—Mr. Hoar in the Senate today, introduced a resolution providing for the appointment of the committee of seven Senators to examine into the conduct of the war in the Philippines, the administration of the government there and the condition and character of the inhabitants.
The committee is to have power to send for persons and papers, to administer oaths and to sit during the sessions of the Senate.

It was practically decided to reduce the tariff on goods coming from the Philippines to the United States to the extent of the export tax levied in the United States. The matter of further reduction is still being agitated.

The Collamari-Ropetta Concert Company give a concert in Unitarian Church tomorrow night. It will attract society and musical people of the most exclusive circles. The prices are most reasonable. Seats are going fast.

FORGOT TO INCLUDE ITEM.

CONSCIENCE WOULD NOT PERMIT HIM TO PAY THE EDITOR'S BILL.

DIXON, Jan. 13.—The editors of Solano county henceforth will be on the alert to see that the candidates for office from that county include their advertising expenses in their campaign account that they file under the purity of election laws. Guy Shirley of Vallejo is a very conscientious citizen. He attends one of the most aristocratic churches of that place and holds one of the best Government positions on Mare Island, but he hasn't paid the editor of the Dixon Tribune the $5 which he owes him for publishing his card in that paper during the year 1900, when he was the Democratic nominee for Senator. After many vain attempts to collect the bill, the editor appealed to the courts and the case was tried before Judge Buckles of the Superior Court of Solano. On the witness stand the defeated Democratic nominee admitted the necessary manner to give California the Tribune an advertisement, but stated that as he forgot to include the item in his campaign expense account that he filed, under the purity of election laws, that he could not conscientiously pay the bill, as he would be violating the laws of the State. Judge Buckles took the case under advisement and has decided that the law is in Shirley's favor.

WATCH MAY TELL STORY OF A CRIME.

OTTOWA, Kas., Jan. 13.—During the coroner's investigation today into the death of James Booth, the old man whose body was found in a well here Saturday, the dead man's housekeeper, Mrs. Babert, identified a watch found in Mrs. Mattie Stanley's room at Topeka as the property of Booth. It had, she said, been in his possession as late as the evening before he was killed. Mrs. Stanley left Ottawa soon after the body was found and was arrested at Topeka yesterday. Mrs. Stanley, her mother, Mrs. Mary McCoy, and two younger members of the McCoy family, all of whom are under arrest, refused to testify today.

BROOKS WILL LET THE COURTS DECIDE

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 13.—Former Treasurer S. H. Brooks has been served with a joint demand for the return of $8,517.53, which he claims as fees on the collateral inheritance tax, by Auditor Harry Baehr and Treasurer John McDougall. Mr. Brooks refuses to return the money to the Treasury, but is willing that the Superior Court should be given certificates of deposit for the disputed fees, thereby insuring their full payment should the Supreme Court decide that Mr. Brooks is not entitled to the money.

Mr. Brooks says he told ex-Mayor Phelan that he intended to keep the money.

HOW TO EAT AND NOT WORK.

ROBERT FARLEY JR. SOLVES PROBLEM AND GOES TO INSANE ASYLUM

That a man can live in Oakland and eat three square meals a day without working and without a cent has been proved by Robert Farley Jr., whose mother, Mrs. Nora Farley, had him arrested to ascertain whether he was "crazy or only just a tramp," as she termed it. Farley was examined by Judge Greene and Drs. Ewer and Baldwin today and it was decided that he was insane.

The testimony showed that young Farley has a vicious temper. On one occasion his father asked him to go to work and he proved his disapproval of parental advice by choking the old man. Then he left home and tramped all over the northern part of the State as far as Oregon. He said he was traveling to see the country. He returned three weeks ago.

"Have you eaten regularly since your return?" asked Judge Greene.

"Yes," was the answer, "I've had three meals a day."

"Have you been home?"

"No."

"Have you had money?"

"No."

"Where did you eat?"

"Around at houses."

"Where did you sleep?"

"In a barn."

Farley once spent a year in an insane asylum, but the physicians decided that a mean disposition and a dislike for work was now troubling him more than a loss of reason.

LANDRECAN'S MAN IS ARRESTED.

BERKELEY, Jan. 13.—James Souffrian, an employee of Dennis Landrekan, the Center street restaurant keeper, who was discharged by a jury in Justice Edgar's Court Friday, after trial for an alleged violation of the mile limit liquor law, was arrested on the same charge this morning. It is alleged in the complaint that the offense was committed on November 26th.

It was because no specific date was named in Landrekan's case that Judge Edgar made the ruling which freed him.

TWO SMALLPOX CASES.

Two more cases of smallpox were reported to the Board of Health today. The infected persons are members of the Hutchinson family at 4215 Montgomery street.

OLD BILLS WILL BE PAID BY THE CITY.

This morning Mayor Barstow and Councilman Courtney, chairman of the Finance Committee, decided to sign the requisitions for a number of bills against the Fire and Police Alarm Telegraph Department, aggregating about $1,000. These claims were left over from last year, and were not presented by George Carlton, the late Superintendent, because no transfer of the funds had been made to provide for their payment.

Mr. Carlton died very suddenly, leaving the matter in an unsettled state. Acting under the instructions of Mayor Barstow, the City Expert went over all the bills and vouchers and found them all regular. As he reported everything straight, the Mayor and Chairman Courtney will sign the requisitions, which will enable the creditors to get their money.

ESTATE OF MRS. BADGER.

The final account of George T. Wright, as executor of the will of the late Jane Badger, widow of Captain Badger, was settled by Probate Judge Ellsworth today. Attorney's fees in the sum of $700 were allowed Snook & Church and the executor was allowed $150 for extraordinary services. The estate was originally appraised at more than $16,000, but most of it has been sold, according to the executor to pay debts.

Miss E. Wright has petitioned that the residue of the estate, with the exception of a gold watch and chain bequeathed to Thomas Badger, be distributed to her.

FINE BUILDING FOR ALAMEDA.

LIBRARY TRUSTEES AWARD THE PRIZE TO SAN FRANCISCO FIRM.

ALAMEDA, Jan. 13.—At a meeting of the Library Trustees held last Saturday night, the plans for the new Carnegie Library were chosen. Wm. H. Wilson and John M. Curtis, architects of San Francisco, secured the first prize, while Cunningham & Potter of San Francisco won second prize.

The first prize gave drawings of a handsome building one-story high, to be built of either light pressed brick or stone.

The roof will be constructed on the old Spanish style, while at the entrance there will be Corinthian arches. The porch floor will be tiled and the steps leading to the same will be built of marble and granite.

Inside the building there is to be one gallery and a dome, which will extend the entire length of the structure. In all probability, the architects who secured the first prize will supervise the work, as Mr. Wilson, one of the firm, has had extensive experience in that line. The winner of the first prize will receive $750, the second will get $250. The selections were made by the Board without any knowledge as to the architect who drew up the designs. The building is to be constructed within the limit of $5000.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 13.—A meeting of the State Board of Trade has been called for tomorrow at 1 P. M., when the directors will discuss matters of raising the necessary money to give California suitable representation at the St. Louis World's Fair.

As this exhibition is to be held in April, 1903, and the State Legislature does not convene until January of the same year, the necessary money must be raised.

There is perfect agreement among the directors as to the necessity and urgency of this matter, and it is probable that they will endeavor to enlist the aid of the County Supervisors, who may be asked to levy the special exhibition tax provided for by law.

THE TURF.

Twenty-one thousand dollars. That is the amount of money handled by George Rose during his bookmaking operations Saturday at Emeryville. Mr. Rose is unquestionably the largest operator among the bookmakers in this country, he is the J. P. Morgan of bookmaking, but after allowing for all these honors it seems almost impossible to handle such an amount of money in one day on a winter race track. That Mr. Rose handled $21,000 Saturday, there is no question, and of that sum he paid out about $20,000 to bettors. It was the largest business ever written by one man on the California turf, but may be excelled by the same man any day before the season ends.

There are sixteen bookmakers now operating in the ring and they have about all the business they can handle. The average business written by a bookmaker is a bout $7,000 a day. George Young handled $9,000 Saturday, and probably several others wrote as much business, but few got over the $10,000 mark in one day. Rarely a day passes that Mr. Rose handles less than $12,000. He will accept any kind of a bet offered at the odds on his board, a fact that helps him to get the money cheaper than any bookmaker in the ring. Big bettors will often turn their backs on 6 to 1 offered on one side and accept 5 to 1 from Mr. Rose, because they know he will not refuse the money.

Deil Fountain accomplished a feat Saturday that has never before succeeded in one of our handicaps. Rarely has an owner taken up over weight in a handicap here. It has been done before, however, for the purpose of getting the services of some particular jockey at that is the reason. Fountain put four pounds overweight on Position in Saturday's handicap. Position ran a phenomenal race and caused a sensation among turf followers by the easy manner in which he carried his weight and strode over the best handicap horses we have here. Only a few days ago with Ransell in the saddle he was badly beaten by poorer horses.

Mr. J. W. Brooks, official handicapper for the California Jockey Club, is confined to his home with an illness more tantalizing than serious. The doctor has ordered him to remain in bed for a few days, but he cannot resist the temptation to sit up in bed and work on some of the races booked for next week. He was not present at Saturday's races, but the form sheets showed him that the public could find nothing in the Pellandine Handicap that looked to have a better chance than a 5 to 1 chance, and the bookmakers, who are pretty good handicappers themselves, offered 9 to 1 against Position and were glad to get the money. That kind of handicapping pleases the public no matter what horse owners may think of it.

The Turkish baths in the Piedmont Power House are well patronized by turfmen on both sides of the bay, and the jockeys use the baths a good deal, because they keep them in condition and down to weight. An amusing trick for reducing weight was discovered yesterday in the scales used at the bath house. The jockeys use the hot room a great deal to sweat off superfluous weight, but one boy found a better way of reducing than scraping away perspiration in a hot room. He manipulated the scales in such a manner that they weighed about three pounds less than actual weight. The trick was discovered through the howl that went up from the regular patrons, who were alarmed at their loss in weight.

"What do you think of it, I've lost three pounds in a week," said nearly every man who stepped on the scales yesterday afternoon. Finally one of the attendants tested the scales, found the cause of the trouble and explained that one of the jockeys must have been trying to "cheat himself."

BOXING.

There is every indication that Jack O'Brien will be favorite for Thursday night's contest in the Exposition building. He is training in San Rafael and his friends who have seen him at work say he was never in better condition. "Young" Gibbs is a clever boxer and a hard hitter, but he has never faced a man as clever as O'Brien, who has gone up against the very best men of his weight in this country. Local ring followers will remember Marty McCue and what a fast, clever boxer he was, and what a fast, clever boxer he was. O'Brien whipped him twice. Dal Hawkins, George McFadden, Kid McPartland and a host of other fighters of that class have suffered defeat at the hands of O'Brien, and the best Frank Erne could do with him was a draw. Oscar Gardner has been beaten black and blue and whipped three times by O'Brien, and Gardner has won many a battle.

Gibbs has not been many years in the ring and has yet to meet the top notchers, but what he has done has been well done. He has scored 22 clean knockouts in the 23 times he has appeared in the ring. He has a punch as swift as lightning which generally lands in a mix-up. He is confident of being able to land this punch on O'Brien.

Jack Root arrived in San Francisco from Chicago yesterday. He is here to meet George Gardner before the San Francisco Athletic Club at Mechanics' Pavilion on the 31st inst. The contest will be for the middle-weight championship of the world.

Vulcan Smelting & Refining Co.,

308 Pine St.,

San Francisco, Cal.

Gentlemen:—

We have just completed a very successful run in the 50-ton furnace sold to us by your company on a mixed carbonate and sulphide ore, and turned out a 98 per cent copper bullion, carrying the gold and silver values, with a loss of less than three-quarters of 1 per cent of copper in the slag, which, as you are aware, is remarkably low in the smelting of carbonate ores. The furnace is all right, — it's a wizard. We would have been very glad to tender you this testimonial before, but desired to make the run entirely with our own force, separate from the operation of same by your force sent here to blow furnace in.

We find that our 30 H. P. boiler is ample to operate furnace in a most satisfactory manner. We also find that your statements regarding the smelter have not been exaggerated at all, and that the operation of the furnace is entirely as represented, and is a complete success, and will within the near future place with the Vulcan Company an order for a 100-ton plant, which we will install at Lordsburg also.

Yours truly,

OAKLAND TRIBUNE
Tribune Publishing Company William E. Dargie, PresidentA QUEER REFORM.

The first Sunday of the new reform administration in New York, we are told the saloons were neither shut tight nor wide open. The World naively says, "it was a judicious enforcement of an injudicious law."

Which means that the front doors were closed, but the side doors were open exactly as they were under the wicked rule of Tammany.

All of which goes to show that there is a great deal of humbug in so-called municipal reform movements. A "judicious enforcement of an injudicious law" is a mere euphemism to be used to describe a studied violation of the law within certain limits. It is a thinly disguised confession of the bald fact that the officers are conniving at a general breaking of the law they are sworn to enforce.

At the outset the high moral ideals of the reform administration have been surrendered to the exigencies of practical politics, and the saloon interests have been placated at the expense of police condemnation of law breaking on an extended scale. To describe non-enforcement of the law as a judicious enforcement is simply to convey the idea that the police officers have received orders from the head of the department not to make arrests for violations of the excise law, so long as the violations are accompanied by certain observances.

That is exactly what was done during the Tammany regime. Perhaps the motive was different in the two cases, but the effect is precisely the same. The prohibition is taught the pernicious lesson that his superior wink at certain phases of law-breaking and actually protect the law-breakers. Naturally he sees no reason why he should not, for his own advantage as they do for this, do a little business in the sale of indulgences for law-breaking on his account. As matters stand the ordinary police officer dare not enforce the plain letter of the excise law.

Then the supporters of the new administration fall back on shabby artifices of language to glaze over their exposed hypocrisy. They get out of temper with critics, use violent words and call hard names—all for the glory of the cause and the purity of reform.

Tammany was accused and probably with justice, of making the saloons pay for the privilege of keeping their side doors open on Sunday. Whether viewed from a moral or a legal standpoint, there is no practical difference between what the reformers are doing and what Tammany did. Tammany let the law be violated from mercenary considerations, while the reformers permit it to be violated for political reasons. The latter is to the pecuniary advantage of the saloon-keepers, and that is all it comes to.

The "moral wave" that swept over New York turns out to be very muddy water when practically tested.

JUDGE MORROW'S APPOINTMENT.

A distinguished honor was paid to Hon. William W. Morrow, United States Circuit Judge, by Andrew Carnegie as one of the trustees of the educational institution in Washington, which he has just endowed with $10,000,000. The fitness of the selection is recognized by all, and general sentiment considers that California has been honored in the person of Judge Morrow.

Mr. Carnegie named Judge Morrow because he knows him well, and has a high appreciation of his character and abilities. During his Congressional career Judge Morrow came into close personal contact with the great iron-master, who inspired a warm admiration for the legislator. When he turned his attention from the making of money to the spending of it for philanthropic purposes, Mr. Carnegie remembered that Judge Morrow would make an ideal contributor in the work of educating and elevating humanity. The first meeting of the Trustees of the Carnegie Institution will be held in Washington, on January 29th, and Judge Morrow has been notified to attend.

Judge Morrow is a native of Indiana, 55 years of age, and a resident of California since 1879. He was Assistant United States Attorney for four years, and was afterwards special counsel for the Government before American and French Claims Commission. He also represented the United States as special counsel before the Alabama Claims Commission. He served six years, and declined a re-nomination. He was appointed United States District Judge by President Harrison, and was subsequently appointed Circuit Judge to fill the vacancy created by the death of Judge Sawyer. Judge Morrow is widely known as one of the purest and broadest minded men in public life.

Jamaica has evidently given up hope of getting her sugar into the United States free of duty. For the islanders are petitioning England to put a duty on German and French beet sugar that will counteract the export bounties paid by the governments of France and Germany.

Boss Croker's repeated asseverations that he intended to remain at the head of Tammany were like a good many political declarations—subject to contingencies. It was evident that Croker would be deposed if he did not retire, and he got out while he could do so gracefully. Some men are not wise enough to do that.

AN OBJECT LESSON.

A dispatch from Boston says: Ex-Governor Franklin J. Moses of South Carolina had been arraigned in the Police Court of that city for stealing an overcoat, and admitted that he had previously been convicted of theft. Moses long ago disappeared from the horizon of politics, but there was a time when his name was constantly before the American public as the representative of everything corrupt and debasing in official life. During the carpet bag regime he was elected Governor by the negroes, and his administration was one long saturnalia of corruption. The pretense of honesty was not even made. Theft was the rule in the executive offices as bribery and blackmail was the rule in the Legislature. South Carolina lay helpless while the cultures fed on her vitals.

This reign of ignorance was ended by the revolution which placed Hampton in the gubernatorial chair. While this revolution was affected more through force than through the lawful processes of the ballot, it was recognized as a necessity if South Carolina were not to be utterly ruined. Therefore the Republican National Administration refused to interfere when Moses and his associates were deprived of power and chased out of the State. South Carolina has never entirely recovered from this dreadful experience and the abnormal political conditions existing there are in a measure traceable to the carpet bag regime and the consequences of its violent overthrow.

Moses was not a carpet bagger, but a native of the State. In the political nomenclature of the day he was a "scallawag"—that is, a native who joined with the negroes and carpet baggers in opposition to the mass of the whites. He belonged to the class most despised in the South. Since being compelled to leave South Carolina Moses gradually sunk lower and lower till he became a pauper and a petty thief. Nearly thirty years since he was expelled from the high position he so frightfully abused, one finds him an old, broken, bloated malefactor, pleading for mercy among other petty criminals.

Fate seems to have reserved him for a terrible vengeance.

Croker's retirement from the Tammany leadership was the logical result of its late overthrow, but the effect on the organization is as yet problematical. Before its overwhelming defeat, Tammany was at the zenith of its power. Lewis E. Nixon, the new leader, is a new type for Tammany. For many years the bosses of the wigwam have been Irish. Nixon is not Irish and he is not a native of New York. He is a Virginian, and was educated at Annapolis. He rose to the rank of Captain and developed great talent as a constructor and naval engineer. His social standing is of the very highest. He is the head of a great shipbuilding company that has immense yards now in course of construction at Elizabeth City. There will be much curiosity to see how he will get along with such Tammany types as Timothy Dry Dollar Sullivan and Silver Dollar Smith, who are potent district leaders.

It is scarcely wise to stick pins in Chairman Burton for his opposition to the Tidal Canal. That matter has passed beyond his jurisdiction and should be allowed to rest. The canal is being dug, which should satisfy us out here. It is not a part of the plan of harbor improvement for which an appropriation is now asked, and has nothing to do with it. Hence there is neither pertinency nor wisdom in suggesting that Mr. Burton's objections to the Tidal Canal may be carried over to the harbor improvement. He has expressed no opposition thus far.

Former Treasurer Brooks of San Francisco is evidently a good man to keep money.

PROFESSOR TELLS ABOUT THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

Professor O'Shea of the University of Wisconsin, recently delivered a very interesting lecture at the Common School Assembly Hall on "Some Phases of Discipline." He stated there was too much tension in the school room. This, he said, was of great detriment to the school children, whose natures were too impressionable to sit as if in a straight jacket all day.

He also said that teachers who were devoid of strong personalities should be excluded from the schoolroom, as their influence over the pupils would be a real injury.

There are too many scholars in the classes as they are now taught, according to Professor O'Shea. He said that before ten years had been gone by classes would be reduced from 50 to thirty scholars.

An orchestra from San Francisco furnished music for dancing and old-fashioned quadrilles shared a place with the newer steps.
